Volunteer firefighting is an excellent way to gain experience when considering a career as a professional firefighter.

South King Fire & Rescue does not utilize volunteer firefighters but there are nearby departments that rely on volunteers.

Pierce County Fire District 13 is very near Federal Way and they are actively seeking volunteers, this is an excellent department. They provide training and experience to men and women 18 years old and over

https://www.piercefire13.org/

King County Fire District 44 Mountainview Fire Department is near Auburn and also has an excellent volunteer program

http://www.kcfd44.org/170/Volunteer-Information